ARE SOLD AT FIXED PRICES ALL OVER THE UNITED STATES, but our convenient plan of payments to those who wish to make use of it is liberal and thoroughly desirable.

We have stated in plain figures exactly and definitely what our plan consists of-the total amount involved-the amount you pay down (which is for records alone), and the amount required in monthly payments. There is no chance of a misunderstanding-and our desire in this, as in all transactions, is that there should be none.

Legislative, Executive, and Judicial Appropriations Reduced.

187 JOBS ARE ABOLISHED

Provision for Agricultural Census Requires 1,000 Employes Congressional Mileage Cut to 5 Cents.

Rigid economy was written plainly Rigid economy was written plainly in the legislative, executive and judicial appropriation bill reported to the House yesterday by the Appropriation Committee. The bill provides for total expenditures of $38,744,733.50, which is $1,128,-943.80 smaller than appropriations made for the current year. This cut is made despite the fact that the bill provides an item of $2,286,100 for a census of agriculture.

The measure abolishes 187 specific salaries and carries no salary increases of any sort. It provides, however, for 1,000 temporary positions in the new ag-ricultural census, the jobs to be of two years' duration and not under civil serv-ice. The item for the agricultural cen-sus itself is $513,400 less than that rec-ommended by Secretary of Commerce

The force of the Pension Office is re-duced by eighty-eight, the Postoffice De-partment force by eighty-one and the Treasurer's office by twenty-six. The bill cuts mileage rate of members of Con-sress from twenty to five cents a mile. An item also is included for the leasing of a modern firegroup building for asset. of a modern fireproof building for use of the Department of Labor for five years at $30,000 a year. The bill abolishes the office of superintendent of building at the Congressional Library. A disbursing clerk for the library, who is to be as-sistant superintendent of building, will be provided at a salary of $2,500 a year. Cut in Auditor's Office.

The estimates on which the bill was based totaled $40,727,518.27. The measure includes 16,708 salaries. The bill provides that beginning next year and continuing once every ten years thereafter a census of agriculture and live stock shall be table. tock shall be taken,

The aggregate sum for personal services in the office of the auditor for the Postoffice Department is reduced by $23.850, forty specific employes being dropped. During the last four fiscal years a total reduction in this office of 355 statutory salaries and a net reduc-tion of $134,120 in total compensation have been effected.

Another Judge Promoted. The bill provides for a reviser of the United States statues at $4,000 per an-United States statues at $4,000 per annum, three privates in the police force of the House Office Building at $1,050 each year, and an additional judge of a District court at $6,000 a year. Many minor changes in the various branches of the agreement.

of the service will be necessitated by provisions of the bill. The total amounts appropriated among the various departments are as follows: Senate, $1,755.992.50; Capitol police, $57,350; House of Representatives, $4,822,902.25; Library of Congress, $4502.055: Botanic Garden, $22,892.75; Executive office, $185,440; Civil Service Commission, $35,710; Department of State, $353,260; Treasury Department, $4,661,222; Internal Revenue, $6,075,000; $4,861,222; Internal Revenue, $6,075,000; War Department, $1.837.608; Public Buildings and Grounds, $86,990; State, War, and Navy Department Building, $156,840; Navy Department, $61.801; Interior Department, $4,911,475; Surveyors General, $217,950; Postoffice Department, $1.807.695; Department of Justice, $608,590; Department of Commerce, $5,659,260; Department of Labor, $732,-960; and judicial, $1,170,000.
